

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Outcome B Benchmark 3 Argumentative Speech Outline:

Introductory Paragraph:

Attention getter & context (What the speech is going to be about):

Transition and thesis statement:

(Transition Assistance): When looking at this issue in society,

(_____) should/should not be _____ because _____

_____.

Body Paragraph One:

Transition & first claim in your thesis :

(Transition assistance) To begin:

Evidence:

According to a study by _____,

“ _____

_____” (_____).

Analysis:

When looking at this evidence that has been provided,

Paragraph Two:

Transition and Claim Two:

(Transition assistance) Not only this,
but _____

_____.

Evidence:

As stated in/by _____,

“ _____
_____”

”(_____).

Analysis:

When looking at the study above,

Paragraph Three:

Transition and Counter Claim:

However, some still feel as if _____ because _____.

Refutation:

But, when looking at the evidence, it is proven that this is not the case, (provide information that proves the counterclaim is incorrect.)

Conclusion:

In summation,

(Restate your claim and thesis statement.)

Discuss how making a change may help society:

Discuss the impact on future generations (ie. If we do not make a change...):
